

Call for Papers and Presentations

Society for American Soccer History Symposium

April 18-19, 2020

The Society for American Soccer History is accepting proposals for its next symposium to be held on April 18 and 19, 2020 at Rutgers University-Newark.

The Society works to promote, facilitate, and disseminate research into the rich history of soccer in the United States. Papers and/or presentations can investigate, but are not limited to, the following:

- Early American Soccer
- Monuments, Museums and Archive
- World Cups
- Soccer and Labor Relations
- Youth Soccer
- High School and College Soccer
- Memory
- Race, Class, Gender and/or Ethnicity
- Culture
- Family History
- Pro Soccer
- Major League Soccer at 25

The following presentation styles are welcomed:

- Fifteen plus Five—fifteen minutes of presentation slides plus five minutes of questions.
- Short Form—seven minutes of presentations slides which is ideal to summarize research or present early findings.

Please send a 200-300 word abstract for a presentation to info@ussoccerhistory.org by the deadline of March 1, 2020. Include the title of the paper, presenter's name and brief biography, and e-mail address in the proposal. Accepted speakers will be notified by March 15, 2020.
